Subject: Internship Opportunity with Kenpro Innovation Private Limited

Dear Tushar,

We are pleased to offer you an opportunity to join Kenpro Innovation Private Limited as Product Engineer - Intern for a period of 6 (Six) months, commencing from August 17, 2026.

Kenpro is a technology company focused on building innovative products and technology solutions across software products and digital platforms. As part of your internship, you will receive practical exposure to a professional technology environment and will have the opportunity to contribute to live business and product initiatives.

Internship Area and Responsibilities

Product Engineer - Intern

- Assist in product research, feature analysis, and product documentation.
- Support product development and testing activities.
- Work with technology and product teams on defined projects.
- Participate in requirement analysis, workflow creation, testing, and product improvement.
- Assist in preparing product specifications, user journeys, and related documentation.

The specific area of responsibility may be finalized based on your profile and organizational requirements and may evolve during the internship to provide broader practical exposure.

Learning and Responsibilities

During the internship, you will be expected to:

- Work professionally and responsibly on assigned tasks.
- Meet agreed timelines and deliverables.
- Maintain confidentiality of company, client, product, business, and technical information.
- Follow company policies, processes, and instructions provided by your reporting manager.
- Actively participate in discussions, reviews, and learning activities.
- Demonstrate initiative, ownership, and a willingness to learn.

Internship Terms

Role	Product Engineer - Intern
Internship Duration	6 months
Start Date	August 17, 2026
